

Studying

Classes that offer a foundation of study that will aid you in your personal Bible reading

Life of Joseph

Sep. 29th – Oct. 20th / Tuesday nights 7-9PM

One of the most exciting character studies in the Old Testament is that of the life of Joseph! Serving as an example of how God is always at work even when we cannot see it, there is much that can be gleaned for every believer by looking at the life of Joseph. Instructor: Paul Craney

Romance and Redemption

Oct. 15th – Nov. 12th / Thursday nights 7-9PM

The ways and workings of God are wonderful and often unknown to his followers. That truth is clearly seen in the beautiful story of Boaz and Ruth. In this course, we will journey verse-by-verse through the book of Ruth, and consider the ultimate story to which it points: Christ and His bride, the Church. Instructor: Kevin Hay

How to Study the Bible

Oct. 27th, Nov. 3rd, 10th, 24th / Tuesday nights 7-9PM

Not only is Bible study essential in the life of a Christian, but it should also be a source of great joy. As such, this course will examine the importance of Bible study, and provide some practical tips on how to enjoy creative and productive Bible study. Instructor: Andy Deane

Defending

Classes that will help you commend Christ to a skeptical and seeking world

Apologetics

Sep. 3rd, 10th, 17th, Oct. 1st, 8th / Thursday nights 7-9PM

This exciting class equips believers with a comprehensive understanding of the core teachings of the Christian faith, and a knowledge of how to defend those doctrines.

Instructor: Shayle Durkin

Showing

This class emphasizes the way in which God is glorified through means of biblical and creative self-expression

Photography and the Glory of God

Oct. 6th – 27th / Tuesday nights 7-9PM

Are you interested in photography? If so, this class is for you! The aim of this class is two-fold: first, to provide a biblical basis for glorifying God through the art of photography, and second, to provide practical instruction on becoming a better photographer. Instructors: Thomas Mack & Brandon Rechten

Sharing

Helpful biblical principles for sharing our faith with those across the street and across the seas

History of Modern Missions

Oct. 3rd – 24th / Saturday mornings 9-11AM

Take a whirlwind tour of the historical background, biblical basis, and cultural challenges of modern missions. Then, consider how you can participate in God's promise to reach the nations. Instructor: Joe Zakhary

A History of Hanukkah

Nov. 14th, 21st, Dec. 5th, 12th / Saturday mornings 9-11AM

Many Christians think that Hanukkah is simply the Jewish version of Christmas...but its much more! Hanukkah has a fascinating history, which includes the Lord Jesus Himself celebrating this time during His earthly ministry. If you are interested in learning more about Hanukkah personally, or as a bridge to minister to Jewish friends and family, this course is for you. Instructor: Saul Sender

Serving

Learn valuable and practical biblical principles and methods for serving within the body of Christ

Called to Serve

Oct. 6th – Nov. 10th / Tuesday nights 7-9PM

As Christians we are called to serve the Lord and to serve one another. This course is designed to help believers follow the example that Jesus provided as servant of all. You will learn important principles of Christian service necessary to minister effectively in the Lord's name and in His strength. This course is required of all serving in ministry at CCOB.

Instructors: Various CCOB pastors

Living

Taking the practical truths of the Christian faith and applying them to everyday living

Financial Stewardship Seminar

Sep. 12th / Saturday 10AM – 3PM

Being a good steward of your money is important, but can sometimes be challenging. As such, join us as we explore how to practically apply what God has said in His word regarding finances. Instructor: Joe Bonacci

Grief Recovery

Sep. 28th – Nov. 16th / Monday nights 7-9PM

This course seeks to equip those who are struggling through different stages of grief, as well as those ministering to the grieving. Instructor: Vinnie Sciuto

First Steps

Oct. 4th – Nov. 1st / Sunday mornings 12:15-1:45PM

This class is designed to acquaint those new in their faith with the important foundations of Christianity and to equip them with practical ways to grow and mature in their faith. Instructor: George Falcone

Biblical Counseling I

Oct. 12th - Nov. 9th / Monday nights 7-9PM

An introduction to biblical counseling with an emphasis on the sufficiency and importance of the Scriptures in counseling. Instructor: Brien Dunphy

Biblical Counseling II

Nov. 16th – Dec. 14th / Monday nights 7-9PM

This course gives biblical instruction in aiding the process of change both in the counselor and those they counsel.

Note: To take Biblical Counseling II, we ask that you have already taken Biblical Counseling I or its equivalent.

Instructor: Brien Dunphy

The vision of our Adult Education ministry is threefold:

- ❖ ENGAGE the heart and mind with clear, challenging, informative, and relevant biblical teaching, exercising the heart and minds of believers.
- ❖ EXCITE Christians towards incorporating Gospel-centered truths into all spheres of life.
- ❖ EQUIP Christians to humbly, respectfully, lovingly, and properly share Gospel truth with those who are seekers and skeptics.
