about bob barnes

Dr. Bob Barnes is a gifted communicator, teaching parenting and marriage seminars throughout North America. On Friday and Saturday, March 30th and 31st, Dr. Barnes returns to CCOB to offer parents a fresh approach to raising godly children from infancy through the teen years.

Dr. Barnes is a dynamic teacher, who helps parents realize that it is NEVER too late to make adjustments to their parenting styles in order to raise godly, responsible children! You won't want to miss this great opportunity to invest in your family!

Dr. Bob Barnes is the President of Sheridan House Family Ministries, which offers a residential treatment program for teens, as well as marriage and family counseling and other social services. Today, Sheridan House impacts the lives of more than 90,000 people a year.

Dr. Barnes has a doctorate in counseling and received his education at Maryville College and Florida Atlantic University. Bob is also the host of a weekly radio program and the author of ten books for families, published in several languages.

Bob has been married to Rosemary Johnson Barnes since 1972. They have two married children, Torrey and Robey.
